5.0 EXCLUSIVE RIGHT OF BURIAL

- 5.1 The Exclusive Right of Burial in a grave space or cremation plot may be purchased at the time of the interment request upon payment of the appropriate fee and, completion of the relevant section on the Notice of Interment form including the name and address of the proposed owner (Grantee).

On the purchase of the Exclusive Right of Burial in a grave, a Deed of Grant for a period of 99 years shall be issued to the purchaser (Grantee) whose name shall be then registered. A copy of the current Burial Ground Regulations shall be passed to the Grantee for their reference. The Grantee will be asked to confirm in writing that they agree to the Rules and Regulations.

- 5.2 An Exclusive Right of Burial cannot be pre-purchased or reserved and will not be sold to undertakers, their agents or other persons for re-sale.
- 5.3 At the end of the said period of 99 years the Exclusive Right of Burial shall cease however the Right of Burial can be re-purchased prior to the expiry date by the Grantee or in the event that the Grantee has deceased by an entitled person. In cases where the Grantee is deceased the Burial Rights must be transferred to another entitled person before the Right of Burial can be re-purchased. In the event that the Right of Burial is not re-purchased by the end of the expiry date the Parish Council reserves the right to remove any memorial or take appropriate action as required.

- 5.4 New graves will be allocated in strict rotation. They are not available for selection. The Council will mark every grave space according to the official plan.
- 5.5 The Council reserves the right to retain any grave space(s) for its own purposes.
- 5.6 Grants by the Council of Exclusive Right of Burial in grave spaces in the Burial Ground provide the Grantee the right to:
- Be buried in that grave;
 - Authorise other burials in that grave (where space is available), or the interment of cremated remains in that grave, subject to it being contained in an approved casket/container and in accordance with the Parish Council's procedure and pricing structure;
 - Erect or place a memorial on that grave and have additional inscriptions placed on a memorial subject to the Regulations of the Council relating to this matter;
 - The Grantee is responsible for the upkeep of the grave space and any memorial placed, including topping up the grave level as necessary.
- (Please note that possession of the Grant does not provide ownership of the actual land)
- 5.7 If any dispute shall arise as to the date of expiry of the period for which an Exclusive Right of Burial was granted by the Parish Council, such date shall be ascertained by reference to records kept by the Council, and the date shown in these records shall be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties.
- 5.8 Plans showing the divisions of the Burial Ground with grave spaces marked thereon may be inspected by prior arrangement with the Parish Office during normal office hours.
- 5.9 The Grant will be subject to, in addition to these Regulations, any order that the Secretary of State may, from time to time, make in respect of the management of burial grounds by burial authorities, the Council's burial ground fees, and any regulations in force for the time being respecting the Burial Ground or the portion thereof in which the plot, which is the subject of the Grant, is situated.

6.0 TRANSFER OF AN EXCLUSIVE RIGHT OF BURIAL

- 6.1 The Grantee or their legal personal representative may transfer or assign a Right of Burial in a grave space, subject to the proper notice being served on the Parish Council. The request to transfer or assign a Right of Burial must be notified to the Clerk and the appropriate legal paperwork completed and witnessed. The office is able to offer guidance and provide the relevant paperwork for this process.
- 6.2 Following the death of the Grantee, the Exclusive Right of Burial in any grave space should be transferred and re-registered before the grave can be authorised for further re-opening or any stone or memorial erected thereon or any existing stone or memorial repaired, altered or removed. No grave space in which the Exclusive Right of Burial has been purchased may be opened for an interment for other than that of the Grantee, without the express consent in writing of the Grantee.

Possession of a Deed does not give the person ownership of Exclusive Right of Burial. Where the owner is deceased, the Exclusive Right of Burial must be passed to an entitled member. The law concerning this matter can be very complex and each case is different. Please contact the Parish Council office who will guide you through the process necessary.

NB. The Deed of Exclusive Right of Burial, like any other Deed, is an important document and should be kept in a safe place.

Subsequent interments within plots previously purchased are hereby permitted, regardless of compliance to the above non-parishioner criteria but will be subject to the grave owners consent and the non-parishioner multiplier as previously stated.
