

Candidate Local Green Spaces

No.	Name	Photo & Map	Recommend for LGS Designation?	Comments
1	Barton Quarry (County Wildlife Site)		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Valued for wildlife (County Wildlife Site Status), scrubby mosaic of habitats present. Valued for recreation (4x4 club use is a demonstration of this).
2	Barton Pit CWS		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Valued for wildlife (County Wildlife Site status). Evidence of significant usage demonstrates recreational value. Note alternative local name – 'Lovers' Walk'. Features in several 'Favourite Walks' identified during consultation.

8	Arnold Recreation Ground		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Valued for recreation – evidence of significant usage by a range of individuals and groups for a variety of purposes including play, sport and dog walking.• Identified as a 'Favourite Place' by local people during consultations.
---	--------------------------	--	-----	---

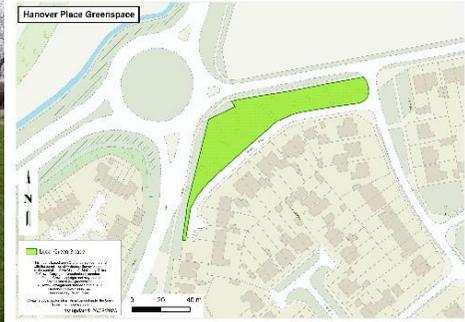

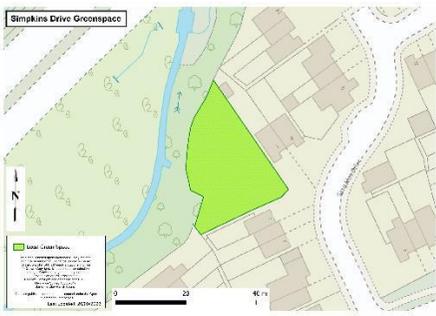

9	Community Garden			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Valued for recreation – significant response to May 2023 event Already has historic value – dedicated as 'Coronation Garden'
10	Barton-le-Clay Allotments			Yes	Valued for recreation – high level of occupancy, well cared for.
11	Arnold Academy Playing Field			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Valued for sport/recreation, used extensively by school; High visual amenity – green space on edge of village, views up to Hills/North Chilterns escarpment and over open countryside.

12	Ramsey Manor Lower School Playing Field		Yes	Valued for recreation, wildlife and visual amenity – significant evidence of range of uses including bug hunting, craft activities, storytelling etc not just by school – also other groups e.g. Rainbows.
13	Luton Road Sports Field		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Valued for recreation – significant sports uses and recreational activities including dog walking • Visual amenity/beauty – stunning setting with views of North Chilterns escarpment (including

14a	Barton Rovers Football Club	 The photograph shows a large green football pitch with a blue fence and stadium lights in the background under a cloudy sky. The map, titled 'Barton Rovers Football Club', shows a large green rectangular area representing the pitch, surrounded by buildings and roads. A legend and scale bar are included in the map.	Yes	Valued for recreation – part of village’s heritage.
14b	Barton Rovers FC Training Pitch	 The photograph shows a green training pitch viewed through a line of trees and a hedge. The map, titled 'Barton Rovers Football Club Training Pitch', shows a smaller green rectangular area representing the training pitch, adjacent to a road and buildings. A legend and scale bar are included in the map.	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Valued for recreation. • Some wildlife value – hedged boundary with mature trees
15	Barton-le-Clay Bowling Club	 The photograph shows several people playing lawn bowling on a green lawn. In the background, there are buildings and a white tent. The map, titled 'Barton-le-Clay Bowling Club', shows a green rectangular area representing the bowling green, surrounded by buildings and roads. A legend and scale bar are included in the map.	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Valued for recreation • Visual amenity – views of North Chilterns in background

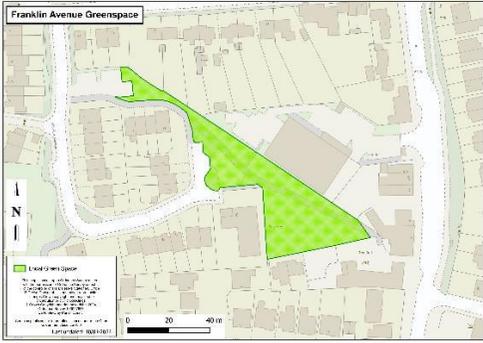

17	Lime Close Amenity Space	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational value – village centre location • Historic value – part of original, larger village green within Conservation Area of village centre. • Visual amenity.
18	Norman Road/Cromwell Avenue Play Area	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational Value – well used. • Tranquillity – secluded location.

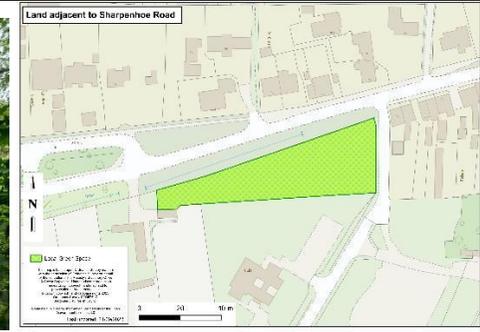

19	Orchard School Playing Field		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational use by school • Visual amenity – valuable open area on edge of village, soon to be enclosed by development to east. • Wildlife value – mature trees, corridor
20	Saxon Crescent Amenity Space		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amenity value. • Recreational value • Some wildlife value from mature trees
21	Higham Gobion Road Greenspace		Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amenity value – village edge feel • Recreational value • Some wildlife value – trees including new planting

23	Hanover Place Greenspace	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amenity value, helps screen residents from road, especially wooded part. • Recreational value • Wildlife value – tree and scrub belt quite extensive
24	Simpkins Drive Greenspace	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amenity value – helps break up denser residential area • Recreational value • Wildlife value – hedges and trees, connectivity to stream corridor to west
25	Greenspace between Burr Close and Ashby Drive	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amenity value – open space within built-up area • Recreational value – using and passing through.

26	Stream Corridor	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wildlife Value – important corridor for wildlife, largely undisturbed. • Chalk Stream – important habitat nationally. • Amenity value – shields village from A6
27	Beechener's Spinney	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beauty – wooded clump in wider landscape • Recreational value – alongside popular footpath • Wildlife – woodland habitat with chalk stream flowing through.
28	Pasture to North of Ramsey Manor School	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational value – popular footpath passes alongside • Visual amenity – important to keep eastern side of village open • Wildlife – chalk stream runs along eastern edge, part of

29	Lively Land	Ramsey Manor Lower School RMLS 21 Apr 2022 · 🌐 Year 2 were out in Lively land this afternoon spending time in the sunshine. Our Science topic this half term is growing. We began by sketching observational drawings of the plants we found.  	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational/educational value – used by school for various activities • Wildlife value – relatively undisturbed scrubby patch with chalk stream running along edge -part of wildlife/green corridor on eastern edge of village • Visual amenity – green buffer on
30	Grange Close Green Corridor	 	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational value – part of green corridor route • Visual amenity – open space in built up area. • Some wildlife value – connectivity through to stream corridor on east of village.

32	Franklin Avenue Greenspace			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational value • Visual amenity – green corridor very close to village centre
33	Manor Farm Close			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational value – used for events • Amenity and historic value.
34	Arnold Close Greenspace			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amenity value – mature greenspace within built-up area • Some wildlife value – trees • Recreational value – central feature.

35	Dunstall Road Greenspace			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational value – quite large open area • Amenity value – open space within built-up area, focal feature
36	War memorial			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Historic value of war memorial feature • Amenity value – green space in busy location • Some wildlife value – mature trees
37	Meadow adjacent to Sharpenhoe Rd			Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wildlife value – meadow habitats becoming increasingly rare. Mature hedge and trees on boundary • Amenity value – close to edge of village.

38

Nicholls Close
Greenspace

Yes

- Recreational value – ball games etc.
- Community value – history of use for street parties since the estate was built (1990s).

