Definition of a Resident

The fee for the Grant of Exclusive Right of Burial shall be subject to a multiple of 5 where the purchaser of such Grant was not ordinarily resident within the Parish of Barton-le-Clay.

Similarly, the fee for interment shall be subject to a multiple of 5 where the deceased was not ordinarily resident within the Parish of Barton-le-Clay, except that the Council would grant a concession to waive the multiple of 5 for an interment in the case of ;

1. those requiring nursing in residential or hospital care outside of the Parish who have a minimum five years' residence qualification that extends to the date of their moving into residential or hospital care.
2. those requiring the care of family outside of the Parish who have a minimum of five years' residency qualification that extends to the date of their moving into the care of family members.
3. such concession would exclude those who have left the village of their own volition then returned to residential or hospital care in the immediate neighbourhood, unless described below.
4. those who have moved from the parish of Barton-le-Clay within the 12 months preceding death, having previously been a resident throughout the previous 5 years.
5. a still born child or the body of a person whose age at the time of death did not exceed twelve years, where one of the parents is, or at the time of the death was, a resident of Barton-le-Clay.

The fees stated:

- (a) Do not include the digging of the grave or the minister's fees.
- (b) Apply only where interment is made between the hours of 10am and 4pm on a weekday or where the interment is made on a certificate from a Coroner or a Registered Medical Practitioner that interment is necessary. In any other cases an additional £112.00 will be payable.
